

Please do not allow Banks, Insurance Co. Phone services, etc. that I currently do business with to interrupt my private time with sales phone calls. Just because I currently do business with them does not give them the right to annoy and disturb me when I am having family time. Thank you